

Coverage Area

WML Safeguard Protection & Consulting, Inc. operates from California with the capability to extend our services nationwide

Whether you're moving high-value cargo across state lines or coordinating multi-state operations, we provide secure, professional escort services that begin in California and scale outward.

Our cargo protection teams are trained to deter theft, prevent tampering, and maintain chain-of-custody integrity throughout transit. From ports and distribution hubs to remote delivery points, we ensure your shipments are safeguarded every mile of the way.

Our Service

Beyond cargo escorting, WML Safeguard offers a full suite of investigative and protective services that can be deployed across the country, provided operations originate in California. These include executive protection, surveillance, threat assessments, process serving, and technical counter-surveillance. Our personnel—many with law enforcement and military backgrounds—bring precision, discretion, and reliability to every assignment. Whether you're a logistics firm, legal team, or private client, we deliver scalable security solutions with California as your launch point and the entire U.S. as your operational landscape.

Specialized Cargo Protection

We protect your priceless cargo like it's our own. With unmatched precision and professionalism our expert escort teams secure shipments worth millions— From paintings to chips, and beyond, we protect your high-value assets from Coast to Coast.

SPECIALIZED IN HIGH-VALUE FREIGHT

From art shipments to multimillion-dollar chip deliveries, we operate with the discretion and professionalism your assets demand.

TOP-TIER ESCORTS

Our escort personnel are composed of highly trained federal, state, and local law enforcement officers—both active and retired—handpicked for their professionalism, tactical expertise, and readiness to respond in high-stakes environments.
